VOL. XXVIII SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF., FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1921. NO. 18

COUNTY BOARD HEARS ABOUT SPUDS

POTATO INSPECTOR ARRANGED
FOR, THAT LOCAL TUBERS MAY FIND WELCOME WHEN THEY KNOCK AT DOOR IN OREGON.

All California potatoes shipped to Oregon must be inspected and found free from potato moths, according to information forthcoming at Monday's meeting of the county supervisors. W. R. Larzelere, president of the California Potato Growers' Association, appeared before the board and told of the virtual quarantine put on by Oregon against California potatoes. According to Mr. Larzelere, the tubers from this state must carry a state certificate of inspection, together with a certificate from the county horticulturist of the county where they were raised, and a statement telling whether they were sacked immediately after digging, all this before the door into Oregon would be opened. The potato growers, according to the association official, have agreed to pay a state inspection fee of $5 per car. County Horticulturist Tate stated that it would probably cost this county $400 to cover the county inspection in the Colma district alone for the next two months. The board authorized Mr. Tate to employ an inspector at a salary of $125 for the next two months, with an allowance of $50 per month for his expenses. All inspection fees will be paid into the county treasury.

A. Mattson, a Daly City contractor, was awarded three contracts for the construction of retaining walls on the La Honda road. The work of building these walls will be begun in a few days and the La Honda road will be closed while it is in progress.

A letter of protest from W. H. Coffinberry of South San Francisco against the building of the county hospital at this time because of excessive building costs, was read and ordered placed on file.

Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey addressed the board on the need of an auto scale at Colma for the purpose of determining the weight of loads passing on trucks. Mr. Hickey stated a truck driver was recently arrested for having thirty tons piled on his truck and trailer. This was laid over for future consideration.

Regarding the construction of a playground at the county clinic, Supervisor MacBain stated $250 had been raised by popular subscriptions for the purpose of equipment. The board appropriated $250 more for the purpose of surfacing the ground with rock.

A communication from Mrs. G. Nagel of Moss Beach, to the effect that the carcass of a whale had been lying on the beach near her home for some time, was referred to the supervisor of the fourth district, with power to have the carcass destroyed if it proves a menace to public health.

A petition from residents of San Carlos, asking the extension of the street lighting system there, was granted.

STUDIOS' OPENING IS PLANNED FOR JUNE 5

Formal opening and dedication of the big new motion picture studios at San Mateo has been arranged for Sunday, June 5th, according to an announcement made this week by Frank Burt, manager of the studios. The plans for the big affair are now being made by Mr. Burt; Daniel C. Imboden, secretary of the Three Cities Chamber of Commerce, and H. W. Amphlett, the three being a committee from the Chamber of Commerce. Governor W. D. Stephens and Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco will be invited to take part in the ceremonies, as well as Mayors William H. Pearson of Burlingame and Thomas J. Brady of San Mateo. Motion picture stars from Southern California are expected to be in attendance, these including Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, and Charlie Chaplin.

Plans are being made to entertain the greatest crowd ever assembled on the peninsula.

DR. RASTALL TO SPEAK HERE ON MAY 17

Noted Engineer Will Acquaint Members of Chamber of Commerce With Plans for Greater Booster Scheme.

Dr. B. M. Rastall, city planning and industrial advisor of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, will address the Chamber of Commerce of South San Francisco at the South San Francisco city hall Tuesday, May 17th.

Details of his plans for San Francisco's development will be told by Dr. Rastall, especially those dealing with closer co-operation of San Francisco and San Mateo county in providing for the future growth of the peninsula side of the bay.

All municipal officials and all promotion organizations in San Mateo county have been invited to attend the meeting, which will be followed soon by conferences in all parts of the county to make every town fully acquainted with the Rastall plan.

ROBERT BALDWIN ENGAGED TO FELLOW COLLEGE STUDENT

Word was received here this week of the engagement of Robert Baldwin, now a student at the College of the Pacific, to a young lady who is a fellow-student at the college. In sending the announcement Mr. Baldwin failed to give the young lady's name, but his many friends in this city are sending him congratulations nevertheless. Mr. Baldwin was formerly assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A. here and was popular with all who knew him.

W. O. W. TO HOLD CLASS INITIATION NEXT WEDNESDAY

Progress Camp, W. O. W., of South San Francisco is planning an initiation next Wednesday evening, when a class of thirty-two will be taken into the local lodge. The drill team from San Jose, the champion drill team of the coast, will put on the work. On arrival here about 7:30 in the evening the team will parade the town, accompanied by music. The entertainment is in charge of Tom Allen.

It is believed the local lodge will reach a membership of 250 by the end of the year. Twenty-six new members were taken in last month. Among the new ones to be initiated Wednesday are: J. P. Weiland, Frank Klawe, William Kraplin, Louis Cordero, Manuel Silva, Frank Gutron, Marcus Dowd, C. Imprescia, F. Bernal, John Garcia, William Kuhlman, Henry Fillet, Henry Costa, Thomas Reilly, Paul Castro, Manuel Vierra, Paul Ferron, J. B. Gonzales, James Tompach, John Zappa, Dr. J. C. McGovern, Howard Septha, William Doyle, Gus Valencia, and several others now awaiting medical examination.

BEAUTIFUL CAR MAKES BLAZE LIKE HUMBLE LIZ

It was a beautiful automobile, a nickel-plated from stem to stern, with all the appurtenances of a drawing room on wheels. Its cost, according to its owner, John S. Elerick, was $6200, but it made a bonfire very similar to that of a blazing Ford when it burned in the hills near Pedro Valley Monday night. The fire could be seen many miles. Constable Landini of Daly City saw the blaze and, thinking it a ranch house burning, loaded several assistants into a machine and started for the fire. The blazing palace car was found out in a cabbage patch, with the sad moon looking down in pity as its luxurious trappings withered in the heat, then went up in smoke. The driver of the car could not be found, and the cause of the fire is unknown. The owner turned out to be a wealthy oil operator from Los Angeles, at present staying at the Palace Hotel. Mr. Elerick stated his car was stolen from in front of a San Francisco restaurant. The car was a total wreck.

YEOMEN PLAN WHIST PARTY.

The American Yeomen are making plans for a whist party, to be held some time during this month. The date will be announced later.

CHINESE GARDENER SHOT BY TONGMEN

Five Shots Enter Body of Murdered Man; Dies in Few Minutes.

Tow Sun, a Chinese gardener of San Mateo, was shot down in cold blood at the door of his cabin Sunday night by an unknown assassin. The injured man was discovered by Policeman Klima and taken to the Red Cross Hospital, where he died within a few minutes and without regaining consciousness. Klima was called to the scene of the murder by Mrs. A. J. Pattison, who lives near by. Mrs. Pattison stated she heard five shots, then the sound of somebody groaning. She hurriedly telephoned for the officer, who found the stricken Chinese rolling on the ground in agony. He was unable to speak at the time and death sealed his lips without his making any statement as to whom his assailants were. The only clue to their identity is a tan-colored cap found near the scene of the shooting.

It is believed the murderers were tongmen from San Francisco. Tow Sun received a warning some time ago that he was in danger, and disappeared up to a few days ago, when he returned to his work on the A. H. Payson place.

SAN MATEO GIRL KILLED BY TRUCK

Gladys Wyant, Riding Bicycle Without Light, Struck by So. S. F. Driver.

Gladys Wyant, ten-year-old daughter of Charles Wyant of San Mateo, was run over and killed Saturday evening by a truck driven by N. Biagini of South San Francisco. The accident occurred at the corner of Clark drive and the state highway, San Mateo. Biagini stopped when his truck struck the girl, and picking up his little victim he rushed her to the Red Cross Hospital, but all efforts to save her life were in vain and death came while the child was on the operating table.

According to Biagini and several witnesses, the accident was unavoidable, as the girl was riding a bicycle without any light on her wheel and in the darkness she appeared before the truck too late for its driver to avoid striking her.

Biagini was arrested for manslaughter, but later released on payment of $250 cash bail.

BOWLERS DENIED DIVORCE.

Judge George H. Buck of the superior court has decided that the evidence submitted does not entitle either party to a divorce in the case of John Joseph Bowler vs. Lola Irene Ella Bowler. It was ordered that the infant daughter of the two be placed with Mrs. Bowler, and that plaintiff pay the sum of $25 a month for support and maintenance until further orders of the court.

PENNY DRIVE TO GIVE BOYS IN HOSPITAL MAGAZINES

At a recent meeting of the American Legion, Women's Auxiliary, Redwood City Post No. 105, it was decided to make May 12th Hospital Day, and that day the penny "drive" for the Base Hospital will be opened. Mrs. F. L. Blomquist went before the board of education and obtained its consent to the drive being made through the schools of San Mateo county for a penny from each child.

With the money given the auxiliary by the school children, subscriptions to various magazines will be presented to the boys at the base hospital in Menlo Park as the gifts of the boys and girls of the San Mateo county schools.

BILLY BLANK CELEBRATES FIFTH BIRTHDAY WITH PARTY

Billy Blank, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blank, was five years old Saturday, and was given a birthday party by his mother in honor of the occasion. Billy received many presents from the young guests. Refreshments were served the table being decorated in pink crepe paper. Those who spent the happy afternoon with the young host were Leora Miner, Ralph Miner, Florence Mayer, Georgia Ely, and Helen Blank.

SO. CITY LUMBER CO. SUES SO. S. F. LAND CO.

Sum of $876.03 Is Asked for Building Material Delivered Last Year.

Suit was filed in the superior court at Redwood City Thursday afternoon of last week by the South City Lumber and Supply Company against the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company. It is alleged that the plaintiff corporation delivered to the defendants lumber and building material between June 1st and November 10th of last year to the sum of $876.03, and that sum is asked for in the suit, together with interest from November 10, 1920.

This suit is the outgrowth of the going bankrupt of the Power Construction Company which, about a year ago, bought from the land company a site on Swift avenue near the Virden Packing Company's plant and started to put up a structure for the fabricating of structural steel. The building material was supplied to them by the South City Lumber Company. When the Power Construction Company, through alleged mismanagement, went bankrupt, the land company took back the building site and with it the material supplied and the partly constructed building.

NEW BALL GROUND TO BE DEDICATED MAY 15

Local Legion Post Plans Celebration for Opening of Athletic Park.

At the last meeting of the American Legion it was definitely decided to open the new baseball park Sunday afternoon, May 15th. The festivities in connection with the opening game, as at present arranged, call for an auto parade and various other attractions. Several of the city and school trustees have already signified their intention to participate. Mayor Holston will pitch the first ball and Chief of Police Conrad will be on the receiving end of the battery.

A band will enliven the parade and will be at the grounds during the game. Soda water and festive hot dogs will be dispensed while the two teams wage battle. In view of the recent agitation concerning profiteers, the Legion has decided to supervise the dispensation of refreshments and thereby assure the citizens of South San Francisco a square deal.

A communication has been received from national headquarters stating that the Legion had pledged itself to raise one million francs to decorate the graves of American soldiers in France on Decoration Day. In this way the supreme sacrifice made by sixty thousand comrades still lying under French soil will be commemorated. California's quota is $1200, toward which $200 has been subscribed. Initial subscriptions were received by the local post before its last meeting, and it is expected that by next Friday the quota fixed for this post will go over the top.

MANY ENJOY SOCIAL GIVEN BY AUXILIARY TO LEGION

The social held Wednesday evening of last week by Bernard McCaffery Post, No. 85, and the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion proved a grand success in every way. Games and dancing enlivened the evening. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Fagundes orchestra. Refreshments were served. The party lasted till the wee hours of the morning, and every one is looking forward to the next social. The success of the evening was due to the committee in charge, Miss G. Ryan, Miss H. Schmidt, and Mrs. J. Fagundes; A. Mathisen, O. Bissett, E. N. Fourcans, and M. B. Koop. The Women's Auxiliary will meet every first and third Friday of the month from now on.

CAMPAIGN FOR SUFFERING IRISH NETS ABOUT $1400

The committee conducting the campaign for the relief of suffering in Ireland has announced that the drive is now drawing to a close, only a few districts remaining to be heard from. The amount raised in this city has reached approximately $1400. The members of the committee feel that good support was given the movement here and are expressing their thanks to all who contributed.

OFF AGAIN, ON AGAIN WITH DRINK LICENSE

Refused Two Weeks Ago, but Granted Monday Night; Industrial Way to Be Improved Soon.

When is a soft drink place not a soft drink place? That is a question that naturally arises following the granting by the city trustees Monday night of the license for soft drink selling at the restaurant at the corner of Miller and Cypress avenues, which they refused two weeks ago. The application at that time was signed by Guilio Lombardi and Bini Geladio; this time it was signed by Lombardi alone. Just the reason why the application was first rejected and then granted does not appear.

Steps were taken at the meeting to mitigate the evil of livestock running loose in this city. Complaints about such stock have often been voiced and from time to time attempts have been made to better conditions, but with little effect. At this meeting the office of poundmaster was declared vacant. At the same time the fees which the local poundmaster is allowed to collect for taking up loose stock were doubled, in an attempt to secure the services of a man who would give time and attention to the duties of the office. These fees will now stand as $6 for cows and horses and $2 for goats. It is expected that in the near future an appointment for poundmaster will be made.

The matter of the sanitary condition of a bakery on Grand avenue, between Cypress avenue and San Bruno road, was brought up, and the city clerk was instructed to ask the city health officer to make an inspection of the place.

Representations were made at the meeting that there were many bad places in the paving in this city resulting from work done in the street by the local water company. City Clerk McSweeney was instructed to communicate with the water company to the effect that, according to the city ordinance, every company doing work in the streets of this city which requires the tearing up of pavement must deposit with the city clerk a bond sufficient to cover the cost of the repairs to the paving, and that this rule must be adhered to. It was pointed out that work by the water company had left damaged pavement on the extension of Swift avenue, on Linden avenue, and in three blocks at the west end of Commercial avenue.

Three resolutions leading up to the improvement of the road from Swift avenue to Butler road were passed. The first officially gave to this road the name of Industrial way, the second established the grades on this

WILL MARY OR WON'T MARY? THAT IS THE QUESTION

Frank Burt, manager of the Pacific Studios Corporation, which is now engaged in building studios at San Mateo for the making of motion pictures, announced Sunday that Mary Pickford would make her next picture at the new San Mateo studios. This announcement was later confirmed by Alfred Green, director of the Pickford studios at Hollywood. Mr. Green stated, also, that at the expiration of Mary Pickford's present contracts at Hollywood she would probably locate permanently in this region.

Registering of great joy by San Mateo residents, while modest shops issued orders for new stock, confectionery stores put an extra polish on their fixtures and six makers of multi-cylindered, high-priced motor cars began to dicker for San Mateo agencies! But somebody is always taking the joy out of life. Came word from Douglas Fairbanks next day to the effect that the story was all twaddle; that Mary was not considering leaving the classic purlieu of Hollywood. The question now before the house is: Which knows the most about the plans of a movie queen, her husband or her manager?

CAMPAIGN FOR MERCY WORK NEXT WEEK

DRIVE FOR SALVATION ARMY TO START MAY 9; QUOTA FOR SAN MATEO COUNTY IS FIXED AT $3500; WORKERS CHOSEN.

Next week has been designated as "ammunition" week for the Salvation Army. A drive will be conducted to supply the Salvation Army, one of the world's greatest organizations for charitable work and the relief of suffering, with funds, the quota for San Mateo county being $3500. J. J. McGrath, postmaster at San Mateo, will act as chairman of the work for this county.

Governor Stephens has endorsed this campaign to supply the Salvation Army with ammunition. In his proclamation Governor Stephens says, in part:

"One of the great needs today, in all parts of the world, both at home and abroad, is for assistance and kindness demonstrated along constructive lines. Mankind everywhere is calling for an expression of helpfulness."

Those selected to manage the drive in the different cities of the county have been announced by Mr. McGrath, as follows:

South San Francisco, Judge E. M. Cunningham.

Daly City and Colma, Dr. Charles Keller.

Burlingame, Mrs. B. B. Loomis.

San Mateo, Mrs. L. E. Woodard.

Redwood City, Franklin Swart.

Halfmoon Bay, Dr. W. A. Brooke.

Pescadero, Dr. C. V. Thompson.

In South San Francisco a meeting to plan for local work will be held at the Industrial Club Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend and a special invitation is extended to all civic organizations and lodges to be present.

MRS. HEALY WANTS POSSESSION AT 912 LINDEN AVE., SO. S. F.

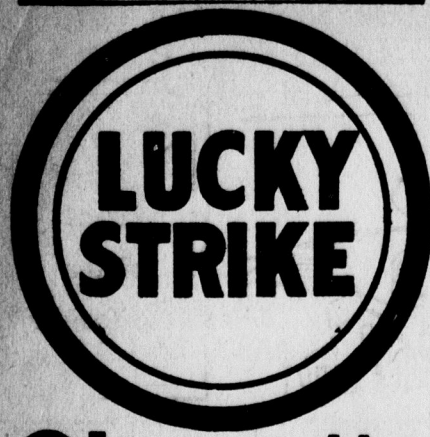

Annie Healy, executrix of the last will and testament of Michael F. Healy, former resident of South San Francisco and Redwood City, has filed suit in the superior court against Miss Jane Doe Sullivan to recover possession of the property at 912 Linden avenue, South San Francisco, which was leased to Miss Sullivan by Healy during his lifetime on a month to month lease. The complaint alleges that demand has been made upon Miss Sullivan for possession of the property, but that she refuses to vacate.

ATTENDS G. A. R. MEET AT CIVIC AUDITORIUM

Judge E. E. Cunningham attended the annual memorial service held by George H. Thomas Post, G. A. R., in San Francisco Tuesday evening. The services were held at the civic auditorium in the great room was well filled. The address of the evening was made by Hon. Frank McGowan. This service is held each year, honoring those of the post who have died during the year passed.

MFERS. HEAR TALK ON INDUSTRIAL CONDITIONS

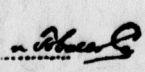

The Manufacturers' Association held a meeting Tuesday noon at the Industrial Club. About fifteen members of the organization were present. A very interesting talk was given by John Williams, manager of the Seattle branch of the Pacific Coast Steel Company. Mr. Williams recently returned from an extended trip through industrial centers of the East, which he took for the express purpose of studying industrial conditions there. The gist of Mr. Williams' address was that commercial and industrial conditions were certain to be better within a few months. The gathering was also addressed by Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey on the subject of the proposed county hospital. Mr. Hickey told of the pressing need for the institution and how the board of supervisors proposed to reduce construction costs.

Supervisor Hickey informed the board that it had cost $500 for a motor to operate the county rock crusher while it had been in his district. road, and the third declared the intention of the board to have the road graded. This is the road that leads from Swift avenue to the steel mill, east of the S. P. tracks.

Two men, George Sidel and W. A. Stearns, were appointed deputy marshals. They will serve as watchmen at the Western Pipe and Steel Company's plant and be paid by that company.

City Clerk McSweeney was instructed to write to the Gamewell Fire Alarm Company and state that the alarm on the new system installed here is not yet working satisfactorily and that the company's agreement to exchange four jars in the battery for new ones had not yet been made good.

The suggestion of Fire Chief Truax that a bed be installed in the fire house for a night man, was referred to the purchasing committee with power to act.

Reports of city officers were read and filed and current bills against the city were audited by the finance committee and ordered paid.

SOUTH S. F. HIGH SCHOOL

Every citizen is and has cause to be proud of our fine high school structure and all that it stands for. Any community that can boast of such a splendid high school building is proud, and justly so, and since pride is the real spirit from which boosting arises, let's all boost. It's the slogan in Northern California, and let's make it all contagious.

Now here are a few reasons why we should be boosting for South San Francisco High School. There is not a more complete course of study to offer students in any high school in the county than we have right here on the hill, and we believe every one will agree with us when we say we have been accomplishing things in athletics as well as in other lines.

Our Junior Chamber of Commerce is awake and starting to boost for and advertise our school, even though it is very young as yet. This page, entitled the Blue and White, we are striving to make a success, and lastly our new high board fence and athletic field, which will in a few short months develop into an enclosure including facilities for different athletic sports.

High school students, do you realize that you are citizens also? And you from the outlying districts, tell those in your town who are about to enter high school of our advantages and help boost in this way.

A HANDBALL COURT

Our school should have a handball court, not only because most schools have one, but because by playing handball we exercise every muscle in the human body. The game is easy to learn, and both boys and girls can play it.

During the noon hour many pupils sit out on the grounds because they can not get in any of the games, as there are too many playing already. Whereas, if we had a handball court, these pupils could enjoy themselves with that sport.

There is plenty of space for these courts and the expense would be moderately small; therefore, we should erect a handball court on the high school grounds.

"WATCH OUR SMOKE"

The motto of the sophomore class was once stated, "Watch Our Smoke," and since that time our "pep" has been criticised. We would like to say in defense of our "pep" that the sophomores have defeated both the low and high freshmen teams in debating, and that all the sophomores except four have been prominent in athletics. Four entered football; five entered basketball, of which number four played on the unlimited team; three entered baseball, and two of our four girls entered volley-ball and hockey. The following received blocks: Elmer Vaccari, Charles Smith, Charles Dunlap, Thomas Doak, Evelyn Mayer, and Anna Carli. Of the three boys from the school entering track, one was a sophomore. And last but not least, don't forget our pie sale. Now, what do you think of our "PEP?"

GENERAL SCIENCE CLASS HIKE.

The general science class had a hike, but only one-fourth of the students of the class attended, four being in the class. Several other students in the high school and junior high were invited, but only two went. Miss Pettit accompanied the three and proved a very good chaperon. During the hike Miss Pettit nearly stepped on a snake about two feet long. A little farther on, a cat was seen by one of the hikers. Miss Pettit pronounced it a lynx, but said not to appear frightened, and all walked back where they couldn't be seen by the cat. Lunch was eaten, and after resting and playing ball the hikers returned with arms full of beautiful wild flowers.

SENIORS VISIT NORMAL.

Seven of the seniors visited normal school in the city last Friday. They went through the building, visited different classes and all enjoyed themselves.

THE SOPHOMORE PIE SALE.

The sophomore class, having decided to hold a pie sale, had a committee appointed by President Dunlap, which comprised Miss Harmon (chairman), Lottie Empena, and Robert Keller. The committee arranged the details of the sale and instructed each member as to what ingredients to furnish. It was also decided that the sale should be on Thursday, and so the pies had to be made Wednesday evening.

At 7:30 the whole class was present in the domestic science room of the high school and everybody was soon at work under the supervision of Miss Harmon and Miss Bulwinkel. The pies progressed rapidly and there were no serious mishaps until some of the boys discovered some excellent cookies and these wise youths found that they made excellent eating. That ended the refreshments for the evening. Another young innocent found it dangerous to fish hot pies out of an oven without some protection for the hand. Miss Harmon found some talent among the boys for pie making which she never dreamed existed.

Dunlap was the artist of the crowd, inscribing a beautiful 23 on the pies. Thomas made a special small pie for himself, but some of the boys thought it would be dangerous for him to eat it, so they took the risk to their health by disposing of it. Jimmy Diggles practiced chemistry by making a mixture which he guaranteed to kill or satisfy. However, as he refused to try it first, Dr. Doak Jr. lost chances of a patient.

After eleven pies were baked and safely locked in the storeroom, to which it was later found there was no key, all left the building, and, as the night was beautiful, the boys escorted the rest of the class home.

The next morning all arrived, happy at the prospect, but were soon scraping in the back of their brains to discover some way in which a lock could be picked, opened or broken, all because the previous domestic science teacher, having no use for the lock, had thrown away the key. One consolation was that the pies were safe. Great was the relief when Miss Pettit found a key that opened the door.

It is needless to say that the sale was a success and that all pies were sold. The sophomores wish that pie sales could be held more often.

MOONLIGHT PICNIC.

Friday evening of last week the picnickers sallied forth in a large truck and an automobile for Salada Beach. The driver stated it was going to be a cold night, but later the wind subsided and it was as calm as summer at the beach. At first the fire refused "to go," but after kindling was obtained from a public-spirited neighbor a huge bonfire resulted. Every one roasted a wienie and some more than one. Inserted in buns, these made fine sandwiches. Then came marshmallows, oranges, candy, etc., which were eaten with the waves pounding out a tremendous accompaniment on the shore.

After various amusements the party finally returned to the big truck and its friendly driver, who brought every one home in scheduled time.

STUDENTS ATTEND TRUSTEES' MEETING

Last Thursday night a committee of three, consisting of Haydn McMillis, Wesley Dotson, and Thomas Doak, acting as representatives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, attended a meeting of the board of education. The object of this committee was to ask permission of the board of trustees to change the name of the high school. They secured Dr. F. S. Dolley to talk on the subject. Nothing definite was decided upon, but the trustees showed their approval of the idea. Thomas Doak introduced Dr. Dolley.

NEW HOME TO BE BUILT FOR JOS. M. FAGUNDES

Joseph M. Fagundes has let the contract for a new home on Grand avenue, between Orange and Locust avenues. The house will be a five-room bungalow, finished in stucco. The E. C. Peck Investment Company has the contract for the house and has already started work.

SANTA CLARA FORFEITS GAME TO SOUTH CITY

Santa Clara has forfeited its hockey game to South City. This was to have taken place April 29th.

There will be a game with San Jose May 6th, at San Jose. This was to have been played April 22d, but because of not having enough machines the game was postponed. The South City girls have not had much experience in hockey, and it can hardly be expected to win from a school which has had two years of hockey, but this school is going to show them what it can do.

HAT TREES AND HOCKEY GOALS.

The special students in the manual training class at the high school, under the supervision of Mr. Klee-meyer, have just completed five handsome hat trees, which are to be installed in the city hall soon.

Some of the students have also made portable hockey goals, and these are to be used by the hockey team.

On entering the city hall, ask to see the hat trees. It would be well worth the effort.

ALUMNI DANCE.

The Alumni Association of the high school is to give a dance in the high school auditorium May 20th. Invitations are being sent out to all the alumni members and their friends. They expect to have excellent music and a good time.

"AFTER THE GAME."

The juniors are to stage a college farce entitled "After the Game," on May 27th. The members of the cast are busily rehearsing their parts under the supervision of their coach, Miss Clifford.

SOPHOMORE RETURNS.

Alexis James returned to high school Tuesday, after having been in quarantine for five weeks on account of scarlet fever. He had a slight attack, but is on deck again as lively as ever.

THE PROOFREADER'S NEMESIS.

"What's the matter?" inquired the foreman, as he entered the sanctum for copy and noted the editor's bleeding nose, swollen forehead, puffed, red eye, and tattered, dusty coat. "Fall downstairs?" "No—only that," replied the editor, pointing his finger to a paragraph in the paper before him. "It's our account of the Crapley-Smith wedding. It ought to read, 'Miss Smith's dimpled, shining face formed a pleasing contrast with Mr. Crapley's strong, bold physiognomy.' But see how it is printed." And the foreman read, "Miss Smith's pimpled, skinny face formed a pleasing contrast with Mr. Crapley's stony, bald physiognomy." "Crapley was just in here," continued the editor, throwing one blood-streaked handkerchief into the waste-basket and feeling in his pockets for a clean one, "and he—but just send that fool of a proofreader in here! There's fight left in me yet!"—Exchange.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

PROPER COOKING MAKES LAMB A HIGHLY APPETIZING MEAT

Earliest records mention the use of the besh of sheep for human food, and in a number of European countries it still is the staple meat. In some parts of the United States there is an apparent prejudice against it. This antipathy probably originated when the sheep of this country were bred mainly for wool production, and the meat was tough and stringy. Many persons today who think they do not like mutton have never tasted it, and many more probably would like it if they ate some that had been properly slaughtered and cooked. The following recipes for its use are recommended:

Braised Leg of Mutton

- 1 leg mutton.
- 1/2 medium-sized onion.
- 1 carrot.
- 1 turnip.
- 1/2 bay leaf.
- 1 sprig each thyme and parsley.
- 1/4 cup mutton drippings or butter.
- 1/2 teaspoon salt.
- 12 peppercorns.
- 3 cups hot water.

Have the leg of mutton boned. Wipe and remove outside papery skin from the meat, if it is present, stuff, sew, and place in a deep pan. Cook the onion (sliced), the carrot, and the turnip (cut into dice), bay leaf, thyme, and parsley five minutes in the butter or mutton drippings. Add the hot water, salt, and peppercorns, and pour the mixture over the mutton. Cook slowly for three hours, with the dish covered except for the last half hour. Make a brown gravy out of the strained broth in which the meat has been cooked.

Stuffing for Braised Leg of Mutton

The stuffing for the braised leg of mutton is made as follows:

- 1 cup cracker crumbs.
- 2 tablespoons melted butter.
- 1/4 teaspoon salt.
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper.
- 1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning.
- 1/4 cup boiling water.

Brown Gravy for Roast Mutton

In making gravy for roast mutton or any other roast meat, allow two level tablespoons of fat for each cup of gravy desired, pouring off any in excess of that amount. To the fat add three tablespoons of flour for each cup of gravy and cook thoroughly, browning it, but being very careful not to burn it. Add boiling water or broth and boil for a short time, stirring constantly. Add salt and pepper. The proportions are two tablespoons of fat, three of flour, and one cup of water or stock. If the flour is not browned, only two level tablespoons are needed for each cup.

Currant Jelly Gravy

A gravy flavored and made acid with currant jelly is often served with roast mutton. To each cup of brown gravy made from the fat of roast mutton add a glass or less of currant jelly. The addition of currant jelly is especially suitable when cold mutton is to be warmed up in gravy.

Boiled Loin Chops

Remove superfluous fat and roll the flank about the tenderloin, fastening it with skewers. Place on a broiler greased with some of the mutton fat. Cook in hot oven six to eight minutes, turning frequently during the first part of the time and reducing the heat as soon as the meat is well seared. A sauce of butter to which a little lemon juice and chopped parsley have been added is sometimes rubbed over the chops. Since the chops themselves contain much fat, lemon juice and parsley only may be used, or the chops may be served on thin slices of lemon. Some people consider onion sauce a great delicacy for serving with broiled chops.

Onion Sauce

- 8 large white onions.
- 1/4 cup butter.
- 1 tablespoon flour.
- 1 teaspoon sugar.
- 1/2 cup cream.
- Salt.

Cut the onions into two or three pieces each and cook them for ten minutes in boiling salt water. Strain and cook in a covered saucepan with the butter for about three-quarters of an hour until they are very tender. Press through a puree sieve and reheat. Sprinkle the flour over them, stirring it in thoroughly, and add the seasoning. Bring to the boiling point and heat long enough to cook the flour thoroughly.

WHAT IS BEST TO SERVE AT A CHILDREN'S PARTY?

Children's parties present special problems because they give the mother the responsibility of feeding other people's children. One danger of such occasions—that of overeating—will be lessened if the refreshments are served at such a time as to take the place of one of the regular meals of the day. The same care should be taken in selecting foods as in the case of the ordinary meals.

No hard, tough, rich, or highly seasoned foods should be served. Cocoa or some other milk drink, fruit, sandwiches, ice cream or a gelatin dessert, plain frosted cake, and simple candies make a good bill of fare.

HELPFUL SEPARATE SKIRT

Everyone thinks well of the separate skirt but the business woman, more even than others, has reason to be its devoted admirer. By means of a skirt or so, and a generous supply of blouses and smocks, she is able to give the spice of variety to her daily garb and to tone up her toilette to almost any requirement the day may hold.

In wool fabrics the plaid, striped and barred patterns have provided for great numbers of separate skirts, but plain materials have not been wholly neglected. A handsome model for such a skirt appears in the box-plated design shown above.

GEN. LEONARD WOOD MAKES APPEAL FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF

Says Two and a Half Million
Starving Armenians Need Help at Once.

Ft. Sheridan, Ill.—Major General Leonard Wood, commanding the Sixth Corps Area, has issued a Lenten sacrifice appeal for funds to save the Armenians from annihilation by starvation and disease. "I feel that however many and however worthy the other appeals which are being made to the great heart of America these days may be," he says, "this cry from the little children cannot remain unanswered."

The Near East Relief, 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, which has been charged by Congress with the American relief work in the whole Near East, has formed a special "Lenten Sacrifice Appeal Committee," of which Major General Wood is chairman, Charles V. Vickery secretary and Cleveland H. Dodge treasurer, to put before the American people the desperate need of the Christian populations of the Near East, who have suffered and are still suffering the horrors of war.

MAJ. GEN. LEONARD WOOD

Among the prominent members of General Wood's Committee are Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson, sister of the late President Roosevelt; ex-President W. H. Taft, Mary Garden, President John Grier Hibben of Princeton University, Bishop-Elect William T. Manning of New York, Dr. Henry van Dyke, David Belasco, Samuel Gompers, Frank A. Munsey, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Henry Morganthau, John G. Milburn of the American Bar Association, Miss Elizabeth Marbury and Mrs. Medill McCormick of Chicago.

General Wood's Appeal
As Chairman of a Special Committee of representative men and women of the country, charged with placing before the American people the desperate need of two and a half million Armenians, the remnant of the oldest Christian nation, whose sufferings through sixteen centuries seem to have brought them no nearer peace, liberty or security, I beg your personal co-operation and influence to forward an appeal for a Lenten Sacrifice Offering to enable the Near East Relief to go on with its work of mercy.

Over one hundred thousand little children who have been kept alive by American generosity for the past three years are absolutely dependent upon the support which America gives them through the Near East Relief.

I feel that however many and however worthy the other appeals which are being made to the great heart of America these days may be, this cry from the little children of the land where Christ gave his life for mankind cannot remain unanswered.

Will you help to save this martyred people?

Leonard Wood
Leonard Wood,
Major General,
U.S. Army.

PRESIDENT ENDORSES THE NEAR EAST RELIEF APPEAL

Washington.—President Harding has given his hearty endorsement to the appeal being made by Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood on behalf of the Near East Relief, 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, for a nation-wide Lenten Sacrifice Offering to save the starving Christians of the Near East.

The President's letter reads:
"There ought to be no cessation or relaxation of our sympathetic American efforts to be of service to these stricken people. One can well believe that they will not survive if we withdraw the relief which has heretofore been so generous from the private American purse. It has seemed to me that all we have done has borne dividends tenfold in the consciousness that we have done an humane thing for a people well deserving our generous sympathy."

"I wish you the very greatest success in furthering the great relief movement to which you are now giving your attention."

"You admit writing these letters to this young lady of the chorus?"
"Yes," said the millionaire defendant in a breach of promise suit.
"Ah! And these hieroglyphics at the bottom of each letter are kiss marks, no doubt?"
"No," said the millionaire, with a grim smile, "what you see is merely Chinese for 'Yours sincerely.'"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

SAN BRUNO LOCALS

The Rev. A. C. Sanger, pastor of St. John's Church, took charge of his new field of activities last Sunday.

John Schyff during the past few days has moved from San Bruno Park to his new home on San Mateo avenue.

Everybody is looking forward to the Yeomen's jamboree on May 21st, and a bumper attendance is assured for the occasion.

A barbecue and free dance are to be given May 29th at the Bellevue Tavern, which promises to be a welcome change to the usual run of amusements offered the public.

The firemen's May Day dance last Saturday night at California Hall proved both a social and financial success and will, in all probability, add nearly $100 to the fire lads' treasury.

It is understood that the Merchants' Baseball Club has disbanded, and that it is the intention of the fireboys to organize a team and compete for baseball honors among the various ball clubs of this section.

Steve Lombardi is about again, and was seen driving a car with the aid of his uninjured hand within four days of his having the middle finger of his right hand amputated. Steve is a rare plucky one, and as popular as he is plucky.

Wednesday night the city trustees met in executive session for the purpose of discussing the problem of street improvements for San Bruno. We are unable at this time to divulge just what took place, but our readers may rest assured that the matter of proper streets for San Bruno made a distinct step forward.

Saturday night an entertainment and dance is to be given at California Hall for the benefit of Mrs. McDonald and family, the proceeds of which are to go for the purchase of a house and lot for the widow and children. It is hoped that every one will turn out strong for this most worthy cause, and a good time is assured all who attend.

Last Monday night the trustees of the Daddies' Club were formally handed over the two silver cups donated by Mayor Grundy to be competed for in a five-mile cross-country run by members of the Volunteer Firemen's Club, the Center Club, and any individual who wishes to compete for same, who has been a resident of San Bruno for at least six months, and is not in the professional class. Further particulars will be announced later.

Paul Schmidt has been quite successful during the past few days selling tickets for a pillow, which is to be drawn for shortly, the proceeds of which are to be handed to the widow of the late Frank McDonald, who met an untimely death by being shot a few weeks back. The pillow is the work of Paul Schmidt's wife, and is a prize well worth winning, in addition to which the cause for which it is given commends itself to the good-will of all.

Dr. F. Holmes Smith, whose residence is on San Mateo avenue, possesses one of the best-laid-out and most attractive gardens in San Bruno. His grounds are a regular riot of floral beauty and add much to the appearance of San Mateo avenue. Mrs. Smith, his charming wife, is herself entitled to considerable praise for this state of affairs, for she takes a personal interest in the grounds around the attractive home and may often be seen among her floral friends.

A freight train going south on the S. P. had one of its freight cars opened by tramps while running between San Bruno and San Mateo, and the contents deliberately thrown out.

on to the right of way, a few days ago. The freight consisted of boxes of canned pineapples, several hundred of which were recovered by City Marshal Gaudette scattered along the right of way as mentioned. Such wanton destruction is worthy of severe punishment, and it is to be hoped that the miscreants may be discovered and punished in a manner befitting their wantonly destructive tactics.

The May Day exercises at the Edgemont school grounds last Friday afternoon, in which the pupils of the Northbrae school as well as Edgemont participated, proved a most successful affair. Principal McCuen and his staff of teachers deserve great credit for the excellent showing made by all pupils. Most conspicuous of all was the fairy playlet acted by the children of the kindergarten section, and great praise is due to their teacher, Mrs. Smith, for the wonderful manner in which they went through their several parts. The children's acting won for them the unstinted applause of the large crowd of interested parents, friends and visitors present.

FILES RESPONSE IN WATER CASE

Judge Davis's brief in response to that of the plaintiffs in the water case, which has been appealed to the state supreme court, has been issued and is a complete reply, covering some thirty pages in all. It is not probable that this matter will come up for hearing under six months from this date; meanwhile the water system will not only have been purchased, but paid for. Judge Davis, however, feels certain of victory and is not losing any sleep over the outcome of this case, a similar one having already been decided in favor of the purchasers by the supreme court a comparatively short time ago.

COURSING CLUB WILL DONATE.

The San Mateo County Coursing Club has generously agreed to donate the proceeds of one Sunday's gate receipts to the fund that is being gotten up to purchase a home for the widow of the late Frank McDonald and his four little children. The particular Sunday upon which the gate receipts will be so given has not yet been determined on, but will be announced in these columns as soon as a definite pronouncement shall have been made. It is expected that a sum ranging from $150 to $250 will result therefrom, which will make an exceedingly handsome and generous addition to this deserving cause.

SILVER CUP ON EXHIBITION.

During the present week there has been on exhibition in the window of the Peninsula Drug Store the two silver cups donated by Mayor A. S. W. Grundy for a five-mile cross-country run, which are to be competed for in the near future. The larger cup, which stands twenty inches high, including its pedestal, must, under the terms of the gift, be won three years in succession by either a club or organization or by some individual taking part in the race. The smaller silver cup, which is an exact replica of the larger one, will go to the winner of this year's race.

The gift of the mayor is bound to have an excellent effect on the citizens of San Bruno, as not only will it call into existence a healthy sporting spirit, but it will also foster a spirit of individual good will that has not always been very conspicuous in the city's civic life. Already a number of San Bruno's young folk have expressed their intention of competing for the cup, and by the time the race is called there will doubtless be quite a number of aspirants.

FIRE AT M. E. CHURCH.

Sunday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock an alarm of fire was sent in from the Methodist Episcopal church on the highway, and within a very few minutes of its receipt the fireboys were on the scene and quickly got the fire under control and thus saved the church from what threatened at one time to be total destruction.

How the fire started is at present a mystery, for the building had not been in use for the twenty-four hours preceding the fire, and the electrical wiring seems in perfect condition. The fire started in a corner of the parish room, which is situated in the basement under the church, and there was nothing there as far as can be ascertained that could possibly have started the conflagration. The Rev. Del Norte Winning, who was telephoned for shortly after the fire was discovered, states he is unable to give any

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A most enjoyable evening was spent last Saturday by those participating in the party given at the Shindler home in honor of Miss Anna Shindler and Leon Domecus, the occasion being the birthday of both. The dining hall was beautifully decorated with American flags and red and green streamers. At midnight a delicious repast was served. The music was furnished by Julius Shindler's orchestra of banjo, drums, and accordion, and dancing was indulged in until the early hours of the morning.

WHIST PARTY TO BE HELD NEXT SATURDAY EVENING

A social whist party will be given Saturday evening, May 7th, at Colma, in the Henry Ward Brown Memorial building, by the Ladies' Home Club. It is needless to state what other form of amusement will be offered, for these ladies in the past have been royal entertainers.

The proceeds arising from the evening will be used for the public library that is planned. Shelves are being installed in the Henry Ward Brown Memorial building to receive the books the county is expected to supply the new library.

SCHOOL CHILDREN HIKE TO MUIR WOODS SATURDAY

An enjoyable day was spent last Saturday at Muir Woods by the children of the seventh grade of the Jefferson school of Colma, accompanied by Miss Anne O'Ber, teacher of the sixth grade. The children all reported having a good time. Those who went are as follows: Miss Anne O'Ber, Evelyn Wight, Dorothy Banes, Irene Schenone, Marion Millet, Anita Varni, Juliet Conserva, Margaret Holersteda, Louise Merlo, Flora Paoli, Francis Jost, Albina Bertucci, Rosa Bauer, Nicholas Callori, Angelo Stapanoni, Joe Shindler, Eugene Benedetti, Mario Gigeno, and Edward O'Ber.

probable cause for the fire, but that he hoped the underwriters might be able to determine how it started. Fortunately the church proper was in no way damaged, all loss being confined to the parish meeting room, where the damage is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $200. It is understood the edifice is insured.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PLANS REORGANIZATION

At a meeting of the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce held Wednesday evening it was planned to entirely reorganize the body. Those at present holding office have agreed to resign and at a meeting to be held Wednesday evening, May 18th, the reorganization will take place and a new set of officers be elected.

Look to Your Paint

Is It Giving You Protection?

IF CHECKED or cracked, new paint is needed, and it will be cheaper to paint now—for deterioration costs more than good paint.

A well painted house brings several hundred dollars more on sale and more in rent. Keep it painted and it stays new for years.

The best paint spreads more easily—saves labor cost. It covers more square yards—you buy more gallons of cheap paint.

The best paint then protects the house, if properly applied, from five to ten years longer.

There is no question as to which costs less. Don't allow surfaces to rot. It costs less to paint them.

The best paints are scientific in formula and preparation.

We've made them for 72 years—to meet weather conditions in the West.

The best materials—PIONEER WHITE LEAD, pure linseed oil, zinc and color—are combined in Fuller Paints in scientifically exact proportions with long-time skill.

Our process super-purifies and "whitens" the lead base. It must be fine enough to pass through a silk screen with 40,000 mesh holes to the square inch. Fine lead means easier spreading and a more elastic, tougher protective coat. The "Whiter" lead base means more beauty in the colors.

Such paint will, if properly applied last from five to ten years longer than cheap paint, and look better through the years.

Uncle Peter's
Tin Box

By HAROLD SINCLAIRE

(© 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

"I'll get even with him—if it takes twenty years I'll have it out with Mark Dawson!"

The owner of Hillside farm spoke the words venomously. His fist was clenched, his face distorted, and youth, prosperity and the possession of broad, fruitful acres seemed to have no force to subdue his angry mood.

"If I may make a suggestion," observed his insinuating companion, Lawyer Dole, "I don't think I'd make my life miserable over a trifle. Why, what more do you want than what you've got, Tom Lacey? The favored heir of old Peter Babson married to the handsomest girl in the district—"

"Bah!" shouted the other ragefully. "What is she or the money to me against the only girl I ever loved? I tell you, Dole, I was robbed of Lella Dallas. When that handsome wife of mine, as you call her, gets in her tantrums, and I realize what I've lost, it about sets me wild. Here Dawson has settled down right under my nose, fairly flaunting his success in winning Lella."

"I reckon it was the only place he had to settle down in, Lacey. The girl liked him best, and naturally married him. They're poor as church mice."

"I'll drive the Dawsons out of the neighborhood!" muttered Lacey darkly.

For a young man with fairly growing prospects in life, Tom Lacey was in an unthankful and dangerous mood. He had nursed his one grievance till it began to tinge everything he did with somber and tragic gloom. He and Mark were cousins. They had both courted pretty Lella Dallas. Certainly the little lady had given Tom no cause to suppose she favored him. When she married the man of her choice, however, Tom felt bitterly wronged. He refused to even notice the happy pair.

Old Peter left Tom the big home farm and some comfortable investments. To the surprise of everybody, all that Mark was awarded was "the River lot," "with all thereon," the will read. "All thereon" was little indeed—a broken-down cottage, a few farm implements, and a great gnarled apple-tree past all bearing and dead at the top.

Tom Lacey had uttered no idle passing threat to Lawyer Dole. It was early spring when he made it. He had men in his employ mean and unscrupulous as himself. They became willing tools in his schemes of low revenge. Its result was made very patent to brave, patient Mark and his loving helpmate, Lella, at harvest time.

It was evening tide, and husband and wife sat on a bench under the old apple tree.

"It's pretty bad, Mark. I must confess," she was saying. "The whole work of a season gone! Don't fret about it, dear. We will begin all once again."

Early in the spring at seeding time some one had tampered with the well-tilled fields. Some one had put in mustard seed and that of a tagly weed, and had choked out the wheat, oats, buckwheat and rye.

"The whole lot isn't good enough for bedding," said Mark. "I've got a chance to chop wood in the forest half the winter. That will keep the wolf from the door till springtime, anyhow."

"Yes, dear," said Lella soothingly, "and I can help out with some sewing. Speaking of chopping. It might not be a bad idea to get the old apple tree out of the way."

"I suppose it will topple over some stormy night and hit the house if we don't," replied Mark.

Mark tried not to think hard of dead Uncle Peter. Still, he had reason to expect a better share in the estate than he had received. More than once that relative had shown him a small tin box filled with a great heap of stored-up banknotes, with his own name scratched upon the box.

"The snow is too deep to work in the woods today," said Mark to Lella one bleak wintry morning. "I believe I'll tackle the old apple tree."

"Yes, the fuel supply is somewhat low," answered Lella. Finally there was a crash.

Lella rushed to the door just as Mark came tearing into the room.

"Oh, Lella!" he gasped. "See! The box—the tin box. My name scratched on the cover. Exactly the one Uncle Peter showed me so many times!"

In suspense and wonder Lella stared as the box was placed on the table. Inside was a letter telling all about it, and—banknotes! banknotes! banknotes!

Uncle Peter had selected a queer hiding place for the little fortune he had put by in ready cash for his young nephew. The inclosed letter settled all questions as to legal ownership.

"Why, we are rich!" breathed Lella, marvelingly.

"I always was rich with such a treasure as you; and now," said Mark tenderly, "with the money to give you luxury as well as comfort, I wouldn't trade with a multi-millionaire."

Mistaken Identity.

Mother (after visitor had gone)—Bobby, what on earth made you stick out your tongue at our pastor? Oh, dear!

"I have, yes."

"Well, now you're paying for it."

"Would you mind telling my butcher that, doctor?"

Temporary Prominence.

"Every time we have a revival in Chiggersville, Sam Sorghum hits the sawdust trail."

"That's a fact," said Squire Witherbee.

"But just as soon as the evangelist leaves town Sam backslides."

"Don't be too hard on Sam. Confessing his sins is th' only way he's ever found to get into the public eye."

Just Exercising.

"What is Mr. Dorkling's favorite form of exercise?"

"Running for office," said Mr. Dubwaite.

"But he never gets elected."

"No, and you frequently see young men sprinting up and down the streets in gymnasium suits who are not going anywhere in particular."
